Owls Do Cry

Considered the first great New Zealand novel, Janet Frame's Owls Do Cry follows the story of the Withers siblings, Daphne, Chicks, Toby and Francie, and their lives in small town New Zealand following a family tragedy.

Red Leap Theatre's contemporary response to the novel uses live music and song, dynamic movement, AV, and our trademark visual style to reveal Frame's insight into our society and her astounding approach to character, imagery and poetry.

'Red Leap Theatre's production of Janet Frame's debut novel, Owls Do Cry, immerses the audience deep in the heart of the author's masterpiece, loses us in the words, the sounds, the terror, the loss, the sweet moments of pure bliss. It literally left me gasping.'

Workshops

Highly energetic and creative workshops developing devising techniques.

Participants will strengthen their physical awareness and connection, explore dynamics of play and impulse, learn how to build ensemble using a range of elements such as text, imagery, sound and basic materials. These workshops provoke and inspire performers to find their strength, have a compelling presence on stage and take ideas and turn them into great theatre.

The workshop will aim to demystify the devising process for students, providing the practical tools they need to successfully tackle their assessments. We will explore how students can use space, bodies, sound, and object manipulation to tell stories. We will also explore how Red Leap devise original work using physical and stylised dramatic conventions, directed provocations and short devising time frames.

Following each workshop we will deliver a 'Tool Sheet' listing the key learnings from the workshop for the students to refer back to as they make their own work.

Workshop Rates (excl. GST):

2 hour workshop:

Less than 18 students attending = $195.00/More than 18 students attending = $349.00

Day rate:

We have a maximum of 30 students per workshop in order to meaningfully explore the exercises and give each student time.
